On the ball

Welcome to today's visitors Derby County as the Wanderers play the second of their three consecutive games here at Burnden Park.

This game was originally due to have been played last night - which is why it had a Friday date on the fixture lists - but some time ago it was switched to Saturday.

Derby, of course, just like the Wanderers are having problems this season and are currently in one of the relegation places.

And this is why victory is so important for both sides today with the points being vital.

On Tuesday night, the Wanderers staged a late, late show with Neil Whatmore scoring the goal that earned two points only minutes before the end of their game against Norwich City.

The attendance of just over 10,000 was a very disappointing one and was the lowest since the side returned to the First Division last season.

It didn't help that Kevin Reeves was out of the Norwich side being transferred to Manchester City for a million pounds and the night itself was very wet and miserable.

But the two points meant that the Wanderers are starting to show that they can win games at home following their 1-0 victory over Nottingham Forest the European Cup holders.

Forest, incidentally, are at Wembley today competing for yet another trophy in the League Cup Final against Wolves.

The Wanderers' third home game on the run comes next Saturday when Spurs are here - and in midweek there is a rearranged game at West Bromwich Albion.

But first things first and today's encounter against Derby looks like being a tough one. However, the Wanderers will be looking for their hat-trick of home wins.

And last of all, welcome to goalkeeper Dennis Peacock who joined the Wanderers from Doncaster Rovers - manager Stan Anderson's former club - just before the transfer deadline this week.

The fee, reported as being £70,000, was a Wanderers record fee for a goalkeeper.

Welcome to DERBY COUNTY

From time to time Derby County have shown a flash of inspiration to suggest that they might yet escape the relegation net. But too often the hopes raised have been false ones and at the moment they have a great deal of ground to make up if they are to rise out of the bottom three places.

Colin Addison accepted possibly the greatest challenge of his life when he took over as Derby's manager last summer. After giving his existing staff the chance to prove themselves, it became clear to him after only a few weeks that he would have to go into the transfer market to strengthen the side.

Consequently, there have been many comings and goings from the Baseball Ground this season. The departures have included defender Steve Wicks (to Q.P.R. for £300,000), and forwards Gordon Hill (Q.P.R. £150,000) Andy Crawford (Blackburn £50,000) and Billy Caskey (Tulsa Roughnecks £75,000).

The Rams paid a club record £450,000 fee for Cambridge United's high-scoring striker Alan Biley after paying Tulsa Roughnecks £40,000 for another forward, Roger Davies. They signed midfield players Barry Powell (from Coventry) and Steve Emery (Hereford) and secured the transfer of Coventry defender Keith Osgood for £150,000.

Mr. Addison has used no fewer than 29 players in his first-team so far this season and, with the relegation threat growing, the experiments are likely to continue. There is every possibility of more transfer dealing before this month's deadline.

Sadly, each week seems to take them a step closer to the Second Division. They started the season without a win, or a goal, in four matches. Though they scored some good victories occasionally, they rarely managed to find the consistency to take them clear of the trouble zone.

Their real problems started in December when they embarked upon a run of 14 games without a win. They ended that dismal run by defeating Tottenham 2-1 at the Baseball Ground three weeks ago but the following week they went down 0-1 at Aston Villa.

Derby have won only one away League game so far — at Bristol City (2-0). They drew at W.B.A. (0-0), Wolves (0-0) and Everton (1-1) but they have been beaten in all their other away trips to Crystal Palace (0-4), Manchester United (0-1), Southampton (0-4), Tottenham (0-1), Stoke (2-3), Brighton (0-2), Manchester City (0-3), Leeds (0-1), Arsenal (0-2), Middlesbrough (0-3), and Aston Villa (0-1).

Since winning the League Championship for the first time in 1972, Derby County have suffered a series of setbacks. First there was "the Clough affair", then a period of partial stability as Dave Mackay led the club to another League Championship in 1975.

Soon Mackay was gone, too, followed by Colin Murphy and Tommy Docherty, who used 30 players in his attempt to rebuild the team last season. Then Mr. Docherty left and Colin Addison was charged with the task of restoring some sort of order at The Baseball Ground.

The one commodity that Mr. Addison most desperately needed was not available to him — time. He had to try and achieve in nine months what normally takes three years or more. Everything has been against him from the outset so it is really no surprise that Derby are on their way back to the Second Division.

Relegation need not be seen as utter disaster, though. Many clubs in recent years have benefitted from a spell in the Second Division, climbing back to greater successes. Norwich, Manchester United, Aston Villa, Wolves, Southampton and Nottingham Forest provide just a few examples.

It was in 1969 that Derby returned to the First Division and, during the past 11 years, they have achieved considerable successes. Their main concern, if they do go down, is that it should not take them so long to return as it did last time. Following relegation in 1953, Derby spent 16 years in the Second and Third Divisions before reclaiming their place.

Farewell to Roy

ROY GREAVES — one of Wanderers favourite sons, left Burnden Park this week to start a new career thousands of miles away across the Atlantic in the United States.

A Wanderers player for more than 15 years, Roy has joined the ever-growing band of English League players to join the American soccer scene. He has signed a three year contract with Seattle Sounders, the team currently managed by former Derby County star Alan Hinton.

Roy made his League debut in October 1965 in a second division game at Orient. "I can't remember too much about the game, although I know we lost," Roy admitted. "What I do remember though is Eddie Hopkinson going off injured and Syd Farrimond taking over in goal. My home debut in the League though was a different affair. I remember that very well because we played Southampton and I scored twice - we still lost 3-2."

Born in Farnworth, it was only to be expected that Roy Greaves jumped at the chance of signing for what amounted to his home club. But when he signed on early in 1965 he had no way of knowing he would make more than 550 senior appearances for Wanderers. In fact he made 493 League appearances, just missing out on the merit award for players with 500 League games with the same club. In fact he was only 26 games short of equalling his old team mate Eddie Hopkinson's club record of 519 League games.

A dedicated professional Roy saw the good and bad times with Wanderers. He was a member of the team relegated to Division Three in 1971 but then played a major part in helping the side to promotion, first to Division Two in 1973 and then two seasons ago captained the side that won promotion to Division One and gave Roy his first taste of League football at the highest level.

To stay at one club for 15 years is quite an achievement, but as Roy pointed out: "I had offers to move elsewhere, but I was always happy here. If you're happy with one club why bother moving away? Playing in the first division should be everyone's ambition and I have had two seasons of it - and captained the side. The way I became captain was strange really because the season we were promoted John Ritson started off as captain. But when he was injured I took over and kept the job. We'd had two near misses and it was great to skipper the side in the promotion year."

Unlike some English players, Roy will stay full time in America playing in the indoor winter league. But he will get a chance to return to Bolton around Christmas, when no doubt we will see him back here at Burnden as a visitor.

We would like to extend our best wishes to Roy and his family.

DAVID McKELLAR (Goalkeeper) David is a former Scottish youth international who served his apprenticeship with Ipswich Town. In 1975/76 he spent loan periods with both Colchester and Peterborough. He linked with Derby last season and quickly earned a place in the first-team.

DAVID LANGAN (Defender) David had unsuccessful trials with Manchester United and Birmingham but was taken on by Derby as an apprentice in August 1973. He made his League bow in 1976/77 and the following season was picked twice for the Republic of Ireland.

ROY McFARLAND (Defender) Roy has recently returned following injury. He began his career with Tranmere Rovers and was transferred to Derby for £25,000 in 1967. After gaining England under-23 honours, he was capped by the full England team on 28 occasions.

DAVID WEBB (Defender) David joined Derby from Leicester for a nominal £12,000 fee last season. A player of wide experience, David began his career with West Ham. He didn't get into their first-team but he was given his League chance in 1964 after signing for Orient. He moved to Southampton in 1966 but two years later joined Chelsea for £60,000. He won an F.A. Cup Winners' medal and a European Cup-Winners Cup winners' medal while with the Stamford Bridge club and was transferred to Q.P.R. for £150,000 in 1974. Leicester paid £50,000 for him in 1977.

KEITH OSGOOD (Defender) Keith won England youth honours in his early days with Tottenham and made his senior bow for the White Hart Lane club in 1974. Spurs sold him to Coventry for £125,000 in 1978 and he joined Derby earlier this season in a £150,000 deal.

AIDEN McCaffery (Defender) Aiden served his apprenticeship with Newcastle and was picked for the England youth team whilst at St. James Park. He made his first League appearances for the Geordies in 1974/75 and was transferred to Derby last season.

STEVE BUCKLEY (Defender) Steve grew up with Luton Town and made his League bow for the Hatters in 1974.

He won an immediate first-team spot and went on to make 123 League appearances for the club before transferring to Derby for £150,000 in 1978.

GERRY DALY (Midfield) Gerry has been capped by the Republic of Ireland on 19 occasions. He was playing for Bohemians when Manchester United spotted him and he went straight into the Reds' senior team in 1973/74. Derby signed him for £165,000 in 1977 and last season he was their top scorer with 13 goals.

STEVE EMERY (Midfield) Steve was Hereford United's first apprentice when they joined the Football League in 1972. He made his League debut for them in 1973/74 and established himself as a member of their defence. Derby paid £100,000 for him this season but the Rams have usually used him in a midfield role.

STEVE POWELL (Midfield) Steve joined Derby as a schoolboy and served his apprenticeship with the club. He made his first appearance in their League eleven in 1972 and has been a fixture in the side since. He is a former England under-23 international.

BARRY POWELL (Midfield) Barry played for the England under-23s whilst with his first club, Wolves. He moved on to Coventry in 1975 and Derby secured his transfer at the beginning of this season.

ROGER DAVIES (Forward) Roger returned to his original club this season when Derby paid Tulsa Roughnecks £40,000 for him. He originally made his League bow for the Rams in 1972/73 but they sold him to Bruges for £135,000 in 1976. Leicester signed him for £100,000 in 1977 but sold him to Tulsa Roughnecks for £60,000 last season.

PAUL EMSON (Forward) Derby signed Paul from Brigg Town for a mere £5,000 last season and now he is holding a regular place in their attack.

ALAN BILEY (Forward) Derby paid Cambridge £450,000 to sign Alan this season. He was once with Luton but he was only a reserve player there. He joined Cambridge in 1975 and it wasn't long before he was building his goalscoring reputation. He was their top scorer for three seasons with 20 in 1976/77, 24 the following season and 22 last term.

Welcome back! Club chairman Mr. George Warburton congratulates Tony Dunne on his appointment as the Wanderers' first team coach.

First Division Focus

How many leagues in the world could produce two international teams of almost equal quality? Very few, one would imagine. If any. But the English First Division can now boast TWO England teams and it also produces the bulk of players for the Republic of Ireland, N. Ireland and Wales, plus a few members of the Scotland team!

The depth of talent in the England team owes much to the careful planning of Ron Greenwood. He really has achieved wonders during less than three years. In the short term he has guaranteed us a place in the finals of the European Football Championships to be held in Italy in June. But, probably of greater importance, he has created an England squad of such depth of talent and determination as to ensure that England will soon be back among the world's strongest soccer nations.

Indeed, Mr. Greenwood can now field two full England teams!

Last summer England fielded a team against Sweden that contained McDermott — from what we had then come to accept as his best team. And, in a prestige match the Swedes desperately wanted to win, England did well enough to earn a 0—0 draw.

Though several England performances, during the build-up, were criticised, Greenwood has always had his eyes very much on the future.

He has picked his moments to experiment wisely. Apart from a near-disaster in our opening European tie in Denmark — when England's exciting, and certainly entertaining, emphasis on attack left so many gaps at the back that we came close to losing — he has taken absolutely no chances.

Any manager must stand by the results achieved by his team. And, in this respect, Greenwood's record is impeccable.

He has led England into two British Championships — and won both with ease.

His England side dropped only one point in eight European qualifying ties.

England are still unbeaten in all competitive matches under Ron Greenwood, winning 12 and drawing two of 14 games in the British and European Championships.

In a grand total of 23 games, England have lost only twice. The first was an unfortunate defeat in Munich (1—2 against West Germany) in February 1978, the other was that pulsating 3—4 reverse in Vienna last June when, with nothing at stake, the spectacle was far more important than the result, anyway.

Mr. Greenwood has used 35 players in the full England side, giving first caps to Terry McDermott, Trevor Whymark, Bob Latchford, Steve Coppell, Peter Barnes, Tony Woodcock, Viv Anderson, Kenny Sansom, Laurie Cunningham, Glenn Hoddle, Kevin Reeves and Bryan Robson.

Meanwhile, he has been devoting a great deal of attention to his under-21 side and already has another batch of exciting youngsters about to break into the full England side.

So well has he done his job that Ron Greenwood can now pick two England teams of almost equal strength. How about this for a first choice — Clemence — Neal, Watson, Thompson, Mills — Hoddle, Wilkins, Keegan, Brooking — Francis, Woodcock.

And this second-choice wouldn't be found wanting: Shilton — Anderson, Hughes, Osman (Ipswich), Sansom — Coppell, McDermott, Kennedy, Barnes — Reeves, Johnson.

The biggest question mark concerns the two centre backs. These are the only positions in which Mr. Greenwood has failed to experiment and, should either Watson or Thompson be unavailable, we could be struggling a bit.

England shortly have a friendly against Spain in Barcelona and the manager might well choose that game to try out one or two new ideas.

Moving away from England, we find that the Football League provides the basis for five full international teams. On one day last October, the Football League actually provided 53 players for international teams playing in the European Championship!

The League provided 11 players for England, 13 for Wales, 12 for N. Ireland, nine for the Republic of Ireland and eight for Scotland.

No other League in the world has ever provided 53 international players on one day. So when the Football League is described as the best in the world, it is no idle praise. For our League holds a unique place of its own in world football.

Meet the Ref

SAUNDERS, ALAN (Newcastle-upon-Tyne). Commenced refereeing with local junior and senior leagues, then progressed to the Northern League and the Football League list. Refereed the Northern League Cup Final in 1979, an England v Scotland (Fire Services) match in 1974. He was Senior Linesman at a European Cup match in 1976, the Quarter Final of the F.A. Cup in 1977 and also Scotland v Finland in 1976.

A married man, with one son, he is an assistant Area Supervisor for the housing department. Likes swimming, plays five-a-side football and enjoys refereeing local Youth and Boys' Club competitions.

How to get there

Here is your RAC route to the away game at West Brom on March 18th.

Leave Bolton on the A666(M)/M61/M62 (follow 'Liverpool' and 'M6 South' signs) to intersection 21a M6 at Croft. (16 miles)

M6 South, then M5 (follow South West signs at intersection with M6/M5) to intersection 1, junction with A41 (follow 'Birmingham West' signs) at WEST BROMWICH (97 miles)

West Bromwich Albion's, The Hawthorns, is 300 yards towards Birmingham on your right after joining the A41 from the Motorway.

There is plenty parking turning right at the ground and then right again.

Talking Sport

Just about everybody, it seems, wants to attend the last Sportsman's Evening of the current season in the Executive Club on April 28th.

And no wonder!

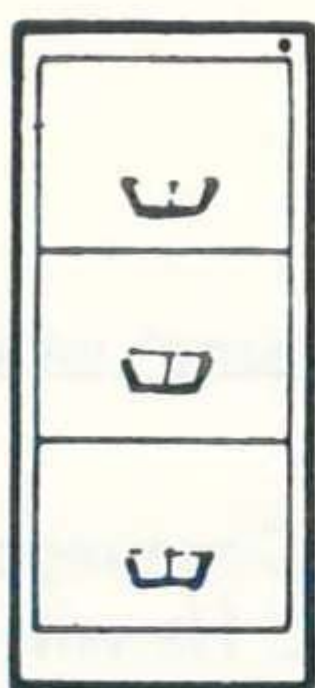

With guest speakers Bob Lord and Harry Catterick — two men with a combined total of 71 years in football — and guest of honour the legendary Tom Finney, it is a sporting occasion not to be missed.

Tickets are just about sold out — at the time of writing there were less than 20 available — so you will need to move fast if you want to be present.

The food and wine are excellent, the company convivial and the whole evening well worth £10 per head.

Make contact now with Nat Lofthouse, Executive Suite manager before it's too late.

Junior Whites News

Hello Junior Whites,

I hope you've been reading the interesting articles called 'The Programme Game' which have been published in our match programme over the last few weeks.

If you have then you'll be happy to learn that we have arranged for Mr Roy Cavanagh — who writes the articles — to visit Burnden Park on March 25th and April 1st. He will be talking to Junior Whites about programmes and programme collecting and, no doubt, showing some of the fascinating programmes in his collection.

The March 25th session is for Junior Whites aged 9 - 11 years while our members aged 12 - 14 are invited along on April 1st. Both sessions at 6.45 and last until 8.00 p.m. in the Executive Suite.

And of course the first official Bolton Wanderers Programme Fair is on Sunday March 23 in the Executive Club. Admission for juniors is just 10p and for adults 20p.

By the way, I would be interested to know if any of you wrote to the four Birmingham City supporters who wanted pen-pals. Writing to supporters of other clubs is a great way of making friends within football and learning about what goes on in different parts of the Football League.

If you are one of the people who now has a pen-pal in Birmingham drop me a line at the Junior Whites Office, Burnden Park, Bolton. I'd love to hear from you.

Enjoy your Bolton football.

Alan Gowling,
President.
